- ※ Interpretation of the academic system, academic background, etc. shall be determined by the International Exchange and Cooperation Committee of this school.
- ※ New students are recognized if the parents and the student alike have acquired foreign nationality before starting a curriculum equivalent to the Korean high school curriculum.

IV. Selection Method and Application Process

Recruitment Unit	Selection Method
	Document Evaluation	Interview Evaluation	Total
All Departments	30%	70%	100% (100)

○ Selection Criteria and Determination of Successful Candidates

- All successful applicants are selected in consideration of the capacity of each recruitment unit if the total score is 70 or higher based on the results of the document evaluation and interview evaluation, which are the screening factors for each unit. (However, admission will not be granted to those who are judged to be unsuitable for admission to the university as a result of document evaluation.)
- Applicants who are required to take the written test (K-TOPIK Korean Proficiency Test) administered by the university as one of the language requirements for document evaluation must apply for the K-TOPIK test separately when applying.
- In cases of ties, all equally-scored students will be accepted.
- If visa issuance is not accepted, then admission may be revoked, and tuition paid will be returned according to the school's refund policy (excluding the application fee).
- ※ In the case of foreign currency remittance, the fee is borne by the applicant.
- In the case of non-submission of documents, false information, forgery, alteration, proxy tests, etc., the acceptance or admission is revoked, regardless of whether it is before or after admission decision.

○ Notes for Applicants

- Applicants cannot apply for more than one recruitment unit multiple times.
- After the application is received, it cannot be modified, and the applicant is responsible for any disadvantages caused by incorrect input. Please be careful when filling out the application form and check that the information entered is correct prior to submission.
- When submitting an application, the applicant's contact information and address must be accurately written, and the applicant is solely responsible for any disadvantages caused by not notifying the Office of International Affairs of incorrect, missing, or changed contact information.
- ※ If your contact information has been changed, then you must contact us at +82-31-999-4011~12.
- No submitted documents will be returned, regardless of acceptance.
- Our school accepts applications through in-person and postal mail applications, and collects minimum personal information with the consent of the applicant. The collected personal information is not used for any purpose other than admissions and academic records, and personal information after entering the university is used only for educational, administrative, and research purposes.
- Personal information collection items: Applicant's name, alien registration number, passport number, application category, department, application number, school of origin, nationality, phone number, e-mail address, guardian's name, guardian's phone number, account number, etc.

○ Application Fee

- Amount: 50,000 KRW
- Payment method: Payment in cash at the time of application or payment to the account designated by the University
- Regarding the application fee refund (Article 42-3 of the Higher Education Act Enforcement Decree)
 - The admission fee will be refunded in the following cases.
 - ※ Pursuant to Article 34-4 (5) of the Higher Education Act, the balance of income and expenditure related to admissions screening shall be refunded in proportion to the payment of admission fees.
 - ※ If the person subject to refund chooses to transfer to the account of the financial institution, then the amount to be returned will be deducted from the cost of using the financial institution's computer network. However, if the cost of using the computer network of a financial institution is greater than the amount to be refunded, then it may not be refunded.
 - ※ After the application fee has been paid, it is impossible to modify, cancel, or refund the application. Please read the written application carefully before paying the application fee and recheck the contents for any errors. However, if, after paying the application fee, it is impossible to proceed with the application due to reasons not attributable to the examinee, such as a natural disaster, disease, or another accident, then submit an application for refund of the application fee and supporting documents, and after deliberation, part or all of the application fee can be refunded.
